Authoritative References List

The Authoritative References List provides a concise yet detailed guide to informative oncology navigation peer reviewed journals and text books. It serves as a valuable tool for all oncology navigators, especially those preparing for the certification.

This list is intended for use as a study aid only. The AONN+ FFL does not intend the list to imply endorsement of these specific references, nor are the test questions necessarily taken from these sources. An updated list is available at <https://aonnffl.org/nurse-navigator-certification>

On the Day of the Examination

Test Admission Procedures

Candidates must report to the test location no later than fifteen minutes prior to the posted start time of the exam. Candidates must present their authorization to test letter and a government-issued photo ID (such as a valid driver's license) with candidate's name on it. The name on the photo ID must match the name on the authorization to test letter.

Candidates without an authorization to test letter, photo ID, or who arrive less than five minutes prior to the posted start time will NOT be permitted to enter the test location, and their examination fees will be forfeited.

Seating of candidates, distribution of test materials, and testing instructions will begin at immediately after the posted start time of the exam. The total testing time is three hours. Additional time has been allowed for instructions. You can expect to leave the test location at approximately three hours after the posted start time for the exam. There are no scheduled breaks.

Testing Center Rules

The following are the rules enforced at all test administrations:

- All candidates must have proper photo ID and an authorization to test letter to be admitted to the test center.
- Candidates are admitted only to their assigned test location at their assigned time.
- Candidates arriving more than 5 minutes late will not be admitted and will have to contact the Registrar at AONN+ FFL and pay a $ 25.00 reschedule fee before they will be able to reschedule the examination.
- No guests are permitted in the examination rooms.
- No reference material, books, papers, or personal items (purses, briefcases, coats, etc.) are allowed in the examination room.
- No electronic devices are permitted in the assessment center, including telephones, signaling devices such as pagers and alarms, personal digital assistants (PDAs), other hand-held computers, and smart watches.
- No weapons or instruments that may reasonably be used as weapons may be brought into the examination room.
- No test materials, documents, or memoranda of any sort are to be taken from the examination room.
- Candidates may not communicate with other candidates during the examination. Proctors are authorized to maintain secure and proper test administration procedures, including relocation of candidates.

- No questions concerning the content of the examination may be asked during the testing period.
- Candidates will be provided with an item challenge form to comment on any exam question he or she believes is misleading or deficient in accuracy or content at the time of the examination.
- Food is not permitted in the assessment center. Tobacco products and gum may not be used during the examinations.
- Breaks are not scheduled during the exam. Candidates are permitted breaks on an individual basis, but no additional time is given to candidates who take breaks. Candidates who must leave the testing room must receive permission from the proctor and may be escorted while outside the testing room.
- Candidates will not be allowed to talk during individual breaks. Those who do will be denied re-admittance to the testing room, forfeit all fees and will not have their exam scored.
- Candidate may not copy in writing or otherwise record or transmit to others any examination questions and/or answers or other aspects of the nature or content of the examination.
- Candidates may not offer or assist, or solicit assistance from other candidates, examiners, or those responsible for the administration of the examination.
- Candidates may not engage in any other conduct or inappropriate behavior which is injurious to the integrity of the examination or to any of its participants.

Dismissal

Any candidate who is observed engaging in any misconduct will be subject to dismissal from the examination, may be barred from future examinations for a period ranging from one year to permanent dismissal, and may be required to forfeit his/her current examination fee and /or period of eligibility. Proctors are authorized to take immediate, appropriate measures against candidates who are caught violating testing rules. The candidate is entitled to appeal the dismissal determination.

Inclement Weather

If any candidate is unable to arrive at a designated exam site because of inclement weather, terrorist acts, a natural disaster, or other unforeseen emergencies beyond control of the candidate as determined by AONN+ FFL, the candidate will be allowed to take the next regularly scheduled examination without being charged a re-examination fee.

If for any reason the exam is unable to be administered, then the examination will be rescheduled within a reasonable period of time. Candidates may take the examination at the next administration without being charged a reexamination fee. Candidates will be responsible for their own associated expenses for future testing.

Examination Irregularities

Any problems, suspected instances of cheating, alleged inappropriate examination administration, environmental testing conditions severe enough to cause disruption of the process, or other irregularities related to test administration should be addressed to the onsite proctor or to staff. All such matters will be reported, investigated, and subject to further action based upon policies and procedures adopted by AONN+ FFL.

Handling of Tests

AONN+ FFL will take all available precautions to ensure the appropriate and secure handling of completed tests. In the rare and extreme case in which the tests become lost or unreadable, candidates will be required to undergo retesting, without being charged a re-examination fee. Candidates will be responsible for their own travel-associated expenses for future testing.

After the Examination

Notification of Results

Candidates are notified in writing of the examination results within 45 business days of the test administration. For security reasons, results will not be given over the phone or sent by fax or e-mail.

Results -- Passing

Candidates who successfully complete the examination and whose credentials and application entitle them to certification will be notified by letter and granted a AONN+ FFL Oncology Nurse Navigator Certified Generalist certification,

The certification remains the property of AONN+ FFL, Incorporated, which may withdraw, cancel, revoke change the scope of, or otherwise annul the certification for cause.

Results – Failing

Candidates who did not successfully complete the examination will be notified by letter and given a diagnostic report on the reason for their failing, a sample of which is displayed below.

Thank you for striving to be an ONN-CG. Your test has been reviewed in relation to the ONN-CG blueprint. You can find the ONN-CG Blueprint weighting on the AONN+ FFL website. Below you will find the areas in which are proficient and deficient.

Proficient

Deficient

Sample Certificate

Each of the domains is weighted differently, as indicated in the exam Blueprint, printed earlier in this Handbook. So you cannot average scores on all the domains to determine your specific score. Domain analysis is provided solely for the purposes of preparing for the next exam.

Retesting: Candidate Fails

In the event that a candidate fails his or her first attempt to pass the certification test, AONN+ FFL requires a waiting period of at least six months between the first and second attempt to pass that same test. Additionally, before any candidate's third attempt or any subsequent attempt to pass any certification test, the candidate is required to wait for a period of at least six months from the date of his or her last attempt to pass the test.

Candidates unsuccessful on the examination are permitted to sit for the next exam administration at a reduced fee of $45.00.

Retesting: Candidate Passes

In the event that a candidate passes any AONN+ FFL's certification test, the candidate is prohibited from retaking the same certification test, unless AONN+ FFL has changed the test specifications for the test.

Appeals Policy

Candidates may appeal the results of eligibility determination or the examinations within 30 days of the date of the results. The appeals process and an application for submitting an appeal can be found at <https://aonnonline.org/certification/cert-help-and-resources>

Code of Professional Conduct

All AONN+ FFL certified individuals must agree to comply with the Certificant Code of
